

Colnbrook with Poyle Parish Council in association with St Thomas' Church

INVITE YOU TO A COLNBROOK CELEBRATION

to mark

800 years since the sealing of the MAGNA CARTA

Saturday 6th June 2015 • 2.00pm onwards • Please arrive early.

King John, on his horse Revel, will lead a procession including local School children from King John's Palace, Park Street to St Thomas' Church, Vicarage Way.

After a service and a little bit of theatre in the church a marvelous Liber Tea Party will be held in the grounds outside.

It's free!

Dress up (optional) and come along. Dress in the style of the period as a Baron, Knight, Archer or Serf. Alternatively come as a hero of democracy from throughout the ages since then.

Sandwiches, scones, cakes, tea, coffee and soft drinks will be served by members of the Church, The Colnbrook Residents Association and The Parish Council.

Liber Tea Party!
in the Church grounds

King John's horse Revel
